Description of planned fundraising activity:

Ongoing activities through out the year to raise funds for RCH

Legal Obligations:

- The Fundraising Activity, including the financial aspects, fundraising, raffles, record keepings and management of the Activity shall be conducted in your (The Fundraiser's) name and is the sole responsibility of The Fundraiser.
- The Fundraiser must keep an accurate record of income, expenses and net proceeds from fundraising activities for 12 months, and provide these details to the RCH Foundation, if requested to do so.
- All fundraising events must be self-funding. The RCH Foundation will not be held liable for any losses or expenses incurred, by The Fundraiser, in any circumstances.
- All promotional material, advertisements, media materials and press releases to be used by the Fundraiser which mention The Hospital or The Foundation in relation to your Activity need to be submitted to the Royal Children's Hospital Foundation for written approval before public distribution or circulation.
- All insurance cover, permits and licences required are the responsibility of The Fundraiser.
- The Fundraiser/Fundraising Group indemnifies the RCH Foundation against any liability, action, claim, suit, damage, cost and expense (including all legal fees) suffered by the RCH Foundation, to the extent that a claim or action brought against the RCH Foundation is connected to, in relation to or arising out of the Fundraiser's:-
 - (a) negligence; or
 - (b) breach of, or default under, this Agreement.
- The Fundraiser/Fundraising Group releases the RCH Foundation from and indemnifies the RCH Foundation against any liability for any injury, accident or other loss, whether physical or financial, suffered by The Fundraiser or its personnel in the course of conducting the Fundraising Activity.

Thank you so much for supporting The Royal Children's Hospital, Melbourne and making a difference to the lives of our patients and their families.

Yours sincerely,
